About Us :

At Lamitech Global, we don't just manufacture building materials – we redefine interiors, exteriors, and structural engineering with innovation, artistry, and precision.

Founded in 1943 in Cartagena, Colombia (South America), Lamitech has grown from a pioneering manufacturer of high-pressure decorative laminates into a trusted global leader.

Today, our primary world-class manufacturing facilities operate out of Colombia, USA serving a massive worldwide market.

In India, Lamitech Group has established a powerful footprint to serve our clients with unmatched efficiency. With corporate operations across all the State and our offices at Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu, and Delhi, and our central head office located in Karnal, Haryana, we are strategically positioned to drive the nation's design and construction evolution.

Our Philosophy & Mission

Our mission is simple: to empower architects, builders, and homeowners with smarter, sustainable, and stunning architectural and structural solutions. As industry pioneers, we merge cutting-edge technology with avant-garde design to create solutions that inspire and endure.

Backed by a dedicated R&D team, and an unwavering passion for excellence, Lamitech is more than a brand – it's a commitment to shaping the future of spaces. We offer 1000+ curated designs, ensuring that every project becomes a masterpiece.

With a commitment to state-of-the-art innovation, sustainable materials, and structural excellence, we elevate spaces from foundation to finishing. Let's build something extraordinary together.
